1. Background information

Background information Part II :

The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI) has launched a new website to explain the asylum process in Norway to unaccompanied minors as well as children whose families are seeking asylum. Norway is presented in a child-friendly manner. The next step for the project is to publish information also meant for children about forced and voluntary return processes.

Children and unaccompanied asylum seekers represent a large percentage of those who apply for asylum in Norway. In 2018, over 40 per cent of the asylum seekers of Norway were children. In keeping with this data, UDI has incorporated contributions from the children asylum seekers to make all information regarding asylum process the best possible. Because of the large number of children involved in the asylum process, this project is important for the Norwegian authorities.

In the light of the above, UDI would appreciate information on whether your MS has created any kind of channel to improve the communication between the authorities and the minors regarding the asylum process.

2. Questions

- 1. 1. Do you have any sources of information/ programs etc that are child-friendly about the return process in your country?
- 2. 2. Does your MS systematically distribute any information about the return process that is specifically suited to children; where children are the recipients of the information? YES/ NO
- 3. 3. If yes, in what ways do you inform the minors about the return process?
- 4. 4. Do you have any kind of feedback from minors or guardians on how to better facilitate the minors understanding of the return process? If yes, please briefly describe or exemplify.

We would very much appreciate your responses by 3 June 2019.

In Austria, there is a leaflet from UNHCR available: https://www.unhcr.org/dach/wp-content/uploads/sites/27/2019/02/AT_UNHCR_DeinAsylverfahren_D_E_2018.pdf that also covers information on negative decisions. 2. There is no information on systematic distribution of the leaflet. 3. The information is provided by the legal advisor/ guardian for unaccompanied minor children. 4. It is preferred to carry out the clarification about the return process during individual counseling sessions with minors, informational material (leaflets, brochures) was not seen as a good tool to increase the understanding about the return process among minors. ---Source: Ministry of the Interior |
|  | EMN NCP Croatia | Yes | 1. No. Croatia does not have any information program designed especially for children about the asylum process. Information materials in which asylum process and rights and obligations during this process are provided in written form and are the same for all applicants. The main difference is the way special guardians, asylum officers and decision makers deliver this information. Special guardians, asylum officers and decision makers who work with children are specially trained. More time is taken, simplified words are used and we make sure in every step of the way that the child understands the information given to him/her. |

² A default "Yes" is given for your response to be circulated further (e.g. to other EMN NCPs and their national network members). A "No" should be added here if you do not wish your response to be disseminated beyond other EMN NCPs. In case of "No" and wider dissemination beyond other EMN NCPs, then for the Compilation for Wider Dissemination the response should be removed and the following statement should be added in the relevant response box: "This EMN NCP has provided a response to the requesting EMN NCP. However, they have requested that it is not disseminated further."

What comes to voluntary return guidelines, there is no official guidelines to meet and inform accompanied minors about voluntary return, but in general if family wants to return voluntarily it is advised that their children should be met, informed and their opinion heard if this is suitable according to their age. 3. Please see the previous question. 4. No, at least there is not anything that would be systematically collected. Finland does not return many unaccompanied minors and there are very few that want to return voluntarily, so returning minors are mainly accompanied minors. |
|  | EMN NCP France | Yes | 1. Information is given to rejected asylum seekers about appeal procedures and rejected asylum application, however they are not child-friendly. NO During the interview with the UAM, the case worker will systematically explain orally to him/her how the remedy work and can give him/her OFPRA's information guide dedicated to UAMs who apply for asylum. 3. Since UAMs who apply for asylum must, under French legislation, be assisted by their legal representative, this representative is in charge of providing such information to rejected asylum seekers UAMs. UAMs may as well be assisted by a lawyer or a social worker from an association which has been agreed by OFPRA. 4. Written UMC information material is mainly developed for legal guardians or other referral parties and our regular information leaflet (IOM can Help/Travel Guide) has been developed for all returnees. See attachments: IOM can Help, Travel guide, Legal guardian flow chart, 18 plus. IOM the Netherlands has an additional component for UMC in the regular AVR program that contains extra support on top of the regular support for all returnees, meaning: EUR 1500 (regular) + EUR 1000 (UMC) in kind and EUR 500 in cash. uam_18eng_2018.pdf 2. • The Repatriation and Departure Service does distribute specific information about the return process that is specifically suited to children. As for the return process, Bureau of Border and Foreign Police PFP (BBFP PFP) which is responsible for the return agenda of migrants who are illegally staying in the Slovak Republic does not provide specific child-friendly information or carry out programs. In the case of assisted voluntary return and reintegration (AVRR) program implemented by IOM, UAMs are mostly returned together with their parents. There is no specific type of child-friendly information provided to UAMs during the AVRR process. The socio-legal protection of children and social guardianship body in the Slovak Republic (which is later appointed as legal guardian of a minor) informs every UAM on the possibilities of return and reunification in other country. This is carried out after the arrival to the Children and Family Centre with specialized groups for UAMs (former Foster Home for UAMs, hereinafter referred to as Centre) where the UAM is placed. Subsequently, IOM is contacted for further stages. Similarly to BBFP PFP, the Migration Office of the Ministry of Interior, responsible for asylum procedure and applications, does not distribute any particular material about the asylum process/return process specifically suited to children. However, as mentioned in our response in the previous ad hoc query by Norway, information material in the form of printed leaflets and brochures called „My life in Slovakia“ (Môj život na Slovensku) created by an NGO Human Rights League for the unaccompanied minors is available in the Centre (former Foster Home for UAMs in Medzilaborce). Brochure also informs about the family reunification and on return. It is available in Slovak, English, Romanian, Russian, Dari and Hindi. 2. See Q1 |
